

Collection Development

Analyzing Library Collection Use with Excel

430320 PB

A 192 p. 2007 American Library Association

In this unique guide, two collection development experts show how to use Excel to translate circulation and collection data into meaningful reports for making collection management decisions.

Computer Software; Libraries

Building a School Library Collection Plan

202521 PB

A 1999 HiWillow Research & Publishing

Designed as a beginning guide to help everyone who is responsible for selecting school library collections. This book has a unique approach to the development of collections to match school curriculum.

Libraries and Media Centers

Building A Special Collection Of Children's Literature In Your

028685 PB

A 178 p. 1998

Ten essays consider aspects of special collections in children's literature, including appraisal of rare and collectible books, cataloging in special collections, preservation and security, and use of the collections.

Children's literature

Building Electronic Library Collections: Essential Guide To Selection Criteria And Core Subject Collections

97844 PB

A 217 p. 2000 Neal-Schuman Publishers

Provides a collection planning guide for collecting, evaluating, and selecting Web-based information resources.

Identifies core collections within major subject areas: business, employment, social science, health, medicine, bioscience, law, physical science, technology, education, current awareness, reader's advisory, well as for print and other collection activities. Each chapter offers guidelines for writing an electronic library collection development plan for the subject area, reliable sources of reviews for Web-based resources, case studies of actual e-library collection development projects, and a suggested core collection. The author's companion Web site offers ready-made, annotated, constantly maintained links to sites in the core collection. Index. ISBN 1-55570-362-3.

Libraries—Collection Development; Telecommunication

Censorship And Selection: Issues And Answers For Schools, 3rd Ed

701786 PB

A 232 p. 2001

A resource to provide educators and citizens with essential information to help deal effectively with censorship challenges.

Education—Curricula; Educational Law and Legislation

Children's Catalog, 19th Ed

97009 PB

A 1265 p. 2006 H.W. Wilson

Provides a list of the best fiction and nonfiction books for children organized by Dewey Classification. Serves as a tool for locating books on a particular subject, as a buying guide, as a cataloging aid and as an aid in checking the strengths and weaknesses of a collection. Includes books and magazines for Pre-K through grade 6. Author, title, subject and analytical indexes. With supplements.

Libraries—Collection Development

Collection Development for the School Library Media Program: A Beginner's Guide

430261 PB

A 64 p. 2006 Follett

A valuable resource for new or experienced school librarians, Collection Development for the School Library Media Program: A Beginner's Guide is an easy to use guide to collection development.

Libraries—Collection Development

Connecting Young Adults and Libraries: a How-to-do-it manual for librarians

422831 PB

A 438 p. 2004 Follett

A comprehensive guide to the why and how of serving teens. Chapter topics include the philosophy behind services, understanding teens, technology services, collections, the role of booktalking, outreach and partnerships, programming, and youth involvement. The authors have provided numerous handouts, sample planning documents, job descriptions, and surveys. The book concludes with a detailed bibliography. Web resources are available on the book's Web site [<http://www.connectingya.com>]. The book would be useful to new and experienced young adult librarians as well as any librarians serving youth.

Books and reading; Libraries

A Core Collection For Young Adults

704936 PB

A 250 p. 2003 NEAL-SCHUMAN

Recognizing the student user as a part of the driving force in collection development, this text recommends titles for a library that will meet the needs of young adult users. Includes the sources, strategies and criteria used to develop these recommended titles.

Education, Secondary; Library Science

Curriculum Mapping: Charting the Course for Content

81641 PM, MM

A 60 min 1999 ASCD

Introduces the concept of developing and using curriculum maps. Examines the purpose and possibilities of mapping and presents an overview of mapping process. Demonstrates how to revise maps using essential questions, precision skills, developmental assessments and computer technology. Discusses what to include on curriculum maps and explains the seven phases of the curriculum mapping process. Features Heidi Hayes Jacobs. Contents: 2 videocassettes (The Essentials of Mapping - 30 min. and Putting Mapping To Work - 30 min.), 1 facilitator's guide.

Education; Education—Curricula; Teaching

Essentials Of Elementary Library Management

706805 PB

A 112 p. 2003 LINWORTH PUBLISHING, INC

The library media specialist's job is a big one and this book may serve as a guide through the different roles. The novice and the experienced may find advice for planning facilities, collection development, time and budget management, faculty collaboration, reading advocacy and managing student behavior.

Libraries; Library Science

Fundamentals of Collection Development & Management

426575 PB

A 360 p. 2003 American Library Association

This comprehensive guide outlines the step-by-step process of collection development and management. Expert librarian Peggy Johnson offers tips for organizing and staffing, conceiving policy and creating budgets, and developing, marketing, and evaluating collections.

Libraries—Collection Development

Collection Development

Getting Results With Curriculum Mapping

708090 PB

A 182 p. 2004

A helpful resource to speed curriculum mapping along. Offers concrete advice on how to get the most out of curriculum mapping, including steps to implement mapping procedures, resources that assist in creating maps, ways to support teacher collaboration.

Education—Curricula

Graphic Novels 101: Selecting and Using Graphic Novels to Promote Literacy for Children and Young Adults; A Resource Guide for School Librarians and Educators.

420570 PB

A 76 p. 2003 Follett

This book helps educators and school librarians gain a better understanding of the world of comics and graphic novels and their value in education. Graphic novels are invaluable for attracting reluctant and struggling readers and can be a powerful reading tool for students struggling with language acquisition.

Books and reading; Libraries and Media Centers; Libraries—Collection Development

Guide to Collective Biographies for Children and Young Adults

422841 PB

A 447 p. 2005 Follett

Aids the teacher librarian, classroom teacher and student in locating biographical information about various people from early to modern times. Includes an alphabetical list of individuals, along with works in which they are included, and an extensive subject guide listing the person by occupation, nationality, and distinguishing characteristics, such as disabilities. Also indexed are awards (Nobel Prizes, Heisman Trophies, and Presidential Medals of Freedom, to name a few).

Bibliography; Biography; Books and reading

Legal Basics: A Handbook for Educators

97572 PB

A 114 p. 1998 PDK

Designed to assist educators at all levels recognize potential legal hazards in educational settings and to negotiate such potential hazards with care and precaution. Looks at how laws are made, professional responsibility and tort liability, classroom organization and management, freedom of expression, curriculum, censorship, copyright, supervision and discipline, property and privacy, confidentiality and reporting requirements, chronic illness and medical emergencies, sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and protection against lawsuits. ISBN 0-87367-806-0.

Courts & Law; Education

Less is More: A Practical Guide to Weeding School Library Collections

426577 PB

A 204 p. 2006 American Library Association

Explains the ins and outs, including why weeding is such an important task. Outlines the steps to get started and breaks weeding criteria down by over 70 topics and Dewey numbers so the task isn't overwhelming.

Libraries—Collection Development

Managing The Reference Collection

028686 PB

A 240 p. 1999

Provides the fundamental tools to select, organize, maintain and manage reference materials in the library. Guidelines include developing and implementing policies, selecting and integrating electronic sources, and evaluating and weeding collections.

Library Science

Middle & Junior High School Library Catalog (8th Ed)

97125 PB

A 999 p. 2000 H.W. Wilson

Provides a list of the best fiction and nonfiction books for youth organized by Dewey Classification. Serves as a tool for locating books on a particular subject, as a buying guide, as a cataloging aid and as an aid in checking the strengths and weaknesses of a collection. Author, title, subject and analytical indexes. With supplements.

Libraries—Collection Development

Middle & Junior High School Library Catalog (9th Ed)

423292 PB

A 1237 p. 2005 H.W. Wilson

Provides a list of the best fiction and nonfiction books for youth organized by Dewey Classification. Serves as a tool for locating books on a particular subject, as a buying guide, as a cataloging aid and as an aid in checking the strengths and weaknesses of a collection. Author, title, subject and analytical indexes. Also includes 2006 supplement.

Libraries—Collection Development

Resource Alignment: Providing Curriculum in the School LMC

203451 PB

A 2004 Follett

Resource alignment is a process of using the shelf list as a tool to analyze and align school library media center resources to the curriculum. This book will walk readers through weeding criteria, sample alignment documents, helpful forms for collecting data such as collection gaps or needs, templates for five-year collection development and budget plans, and documentaries for getting funding to support your collection needs.

Libraries and Media Centers

School Censorship in the 21st Century

203301 PB

A 2001 International Reading Association

Offers a contemporary view of challenges to students' rights to read and teachers' right to choose books and other instructional materials.

Libraries and Media Centers

School Censorship in the 21st Century: A Guide for Teachers and School Library Media Specialists

701930 PB

A 256 p. 2001 LINWORTH PUBLISHING, INC

The authors analyze several aspects of censorship providing an historical summary and discussing the impact of the digital age. Guidelines for teachers and librarians are included throughout.

Censorship

Selecting Books For The Elementary School Library Media Center: A Complete Guide

97845 PB

A 212 p. 2000 Neal-Schuman Publishers

Focuses on the selection of book in an elementary school and on the resources designed to assist in the process. Identifies resources that support other aspects of collection development and looks at surveys of children's literature. Discusses the criteria for evaluating the characteristics of books under consideration. Provides an overview of the range of activities in the selection process, describes criteria that are valid for all genres, addresses criteria related to multicultural and international aspects of books, describes the major guides and reviewing media, examines the role that illustrations play in picture books and looks at special considerations for various genres including fiction, genre fiction, folklore, rhymes and poetry, and information books. Examines selection standards for biographies,

Collection Development

books about the visual arts, how-to-do-it books, and books in science and technology, and social sciences,

Books and reading; Children's literature; Instructional Materials Centers

Selecting Books for the Elementary School Library Media Center

704943 PB

A 212 p. 2000 NEAL-SCHUMAN
Focuses on the selection of books in an elementary school and on resources designed to assist the process. Resources that support collection development are identified along with surveys of children's literature for specific titles.

Libraries; Reading; Reading Materials

Senior High School Library Catalog (16th Ed)

97071 PB

A 1243 p. 2002 H.W. Wilson
Provides a list of the best fiction and nonfiction books for senior high school students organized by Dewey Classification. Serves as a tool for locating books on a particular subject, as a buying guide, as a cataloging aid and as an aid in checking the strengths and weaknesses of a collection. Includes books and magazines for grades 9 through 12. Author, title, subject and analytical indexes. With supplements.

Libraries—Collection Development

Teens @ the library

Developing and Promoting Graphic Novel Collections

422645 PB

A 130 p. 2005 Follett
A primer for librarians and educators that builds a familiarity with a unique and popular form of storytelling. It explains what graphic novels are, how libraries can bring this format to users, how public and school libraries can develop quality collections, and how to market and program with these materials.

Books and reading;
Libraries—Collection Development

Getting Graphic! Using Graphic Novels to Promote Literacy with Preteens and Teens

420568 PB

A 100 p. 2003 Follett
Includes an overview of the history of comic books and graphic novels, a "plain english" glossary to help readers decipher terms used in graphic novel publishing, as well as a list of recommended graphic novel titles. This book addresses collection development of graphic novels in library media centers, and serves as an introductory guide to the graphic novel format for school as well as public librarians.

Books and reading; Instructional Materials Centers;
Libraries—Collection Development

"What's A Librarian To Do?" The Filtering Dilemma (Video)

046775 PM

A 106 min 1999

OFFERS INTERVIEWS, PRESENTATIONS AND PANEL DISCUSSION TO EXPLORE THE ISSUES RELATED TO LIBRARIES FILTERING OR NOT FILTERING INTERNET SITES. TOPICS COVERED ARE: AN OVERVIEW OF THE TECHNOLOGY, A LEGAL PROSPECTIVE, A DEMONSTRATION OF SELECTED SOFTWARE PACKAGES, THE MODIFICATION OF LIBRARY ACCEPTABLE USE POLICIES TO INCLUDE INTERNET USE, THE ALA LIBRARY BILL AND A LOOK AT THE CHALLENGES FACED BY LIBRARIANS WHO WORK IN EITHER A FILTERED OR AN UNFILTERED ENVIRONMENT.

Censorship; Internet (Computer network)

Where Do I Start? A School Library Handbook

701942 PB

A 160 p. 2001 LINWORTH PUBLISHING, INC

Designed to provide a quick overview and brief information for many library related topics and lead to other resources for in-depth information. Covers policies and procedures, space, collection development, public relations, and technology.

Library Science